You will get your closing statement (also known as a settlement statement). This is a document that itemizes all the charges and credits and then shows the net profit for the seller. It summarizes the finances of the real estate transaction. Final closing costs can range anywhere from 6% to 10% of the final sale price when you include commissions and third party fees. If you hire an attorney to help you finalize your deal, the document itself is usually part of the total fees for closing.
